Wanted

A position to assist with housework and plain sewing in a small family. Wages not so much as an object as a good home. Address, Mrs. M. Ellsworth, Post Office Carson City, Nevada.

—For the best horse liniment now in the market go to Doc. Benton. It is his own make, and warranted to beat all the fancy brands.

ALL SORTS.

—Wizard Oil at Geo. Thaxter's.
—There is a large attendance at the Fair from this city.

—Thomas Roach sent up for burglary from Eureka has been pardoned. He is dying of consumption.

—The new mine discovered in King's canyon is called the French Flora. The ledge is 8 feet wide assaying $225 per ton.

—The taxpayers of Virginia City are inquiring how it is that Joe Douglass the banker is only assessed at $60,000 when he is known to have $2,000,000 in valuables stowed away in his safe.

—A San Francisco paper asserts that the knife is becoming altogether too favorite a weapon in that section.

Yes, indeed and almost everybody eats with them too.

—My daughter has taken the medicine faithfully according to directions, and her health and spirits are perfect. The humor is all gone from her face. I wish every anxious mother might know what a blessing Ayer's Sarsaparilla is in such cases.

—"Grizzly Dan" the big bear liar of Lake Tahoe who used to hang about this city and make a general nuisance of himself has been sent to jail three years for burglary.

Well, three years isn't much but it's better than nothing.

—Sufferer from the effects of quinine, used as a remedy for chills and fever, will appreciate Ayer's Ague Cure, a powerful tonic bitter, composed wholly of vegetable substances, without a particle of any noxious drug. Its action is peculiar, prompt and powerful, breaking up the chill, curing the fever, and expelling the poison from the system, yet leaving no harmful or unpleasant effect upon the patient.

A Weak Argument.

Not long ago the Democrats claimed that C. C. Stevenson only paid miners $3 a day. Now the Chronicle admits that he has always paid $4 but adds that it is no credit to him, as he was compelled to do so by the Miner's Union.

Does the Miner's Union compel Mr. Stevenson to engage in his mining enterprises? Can the Miner's Union compel any man to engage in hazardous undertakings where large amounts of money are spent? It shows a weak cause when the Adams' organ have nothing but this to offer in reply to the statement that Mr. Stevenson has paid out over $5,000,000 in wages.

The Miner's Union could not compel Mr. Adams to pay $4 a day wages, for the simple fact that he hired his $250 a day men in Nye county, a section of country not under the jurisdiction of the Miner's Union.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child she cried for Castoria. When she became ill, she cried for Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

The State Fair.

The State Fair opened on Monday with a large attendance. There is an excellent display of thoroughbred cattle and a splendid showing of fast horses.

Winters Billy won the 1 mile dash.

The Silver State Stakes, mile and a half dash, was won by Miss Courtney also from the Winters' stables, time 2:48.

The mile and repeat race was won by Lige Clarke, 1:50 1/2.

John D. won the 1 mile dash in 2:29.

Certionani won the mile dash beating Snuff Box and Billy Coombs.

Cowan; Second Lieutenant, Peter Gordon; Recording Secretary, Jonathan Saffell; Financial Secretary, C. W. Thompson; Treasurer, G. W. Kitzmeyer. After the election a collation was served in the company's reception room.

THE SCARLET FEVER.

A Word of Warning to Ignorant Persons.

There are now over twenty-five cases of scarlet fever in this city, and some people assert that there are upwards of sixty. The spread of the disease has been brought about by apathy on the part of the city authorities, and a wide-spread ignorance of the subtle character of the infection. It has been raging in this city a month, and so far no special steps have been taken to stamp it out. Most people are utterly ignorant of the dangerous character of the disease, which seems to be both contagious and infectious.

The writer is informed that on Sunday a teacher of one of the Sunday schools in this city, came into the Sunday school where a large number of children were congregated, and told them that he had just left the bedside of his sick child, who had been down with the scarlet fever, but was getting along all right now, as the skin was peeling off.

Physicians claim that the stage of the disease marked by the peeling of the skin is the most catching time of all.

Here a man deliberately exposes the lives of scores of children simply through ignorance of the disease. Complete isolation is the only remedy, and no person should go near a scarlet fever case, unless compelled by absolute necessity. Children in families where the fever was raging have been sent to school to endanger the lives of other children. The city council should handle this matter at once. If it is necessary to close the Sunday schools and the public schools to check the spread of the disease it should be done at once. People who needlessly expose others to contamination in the disease ought to be arrested if nothing else will teach them better.

THE "PROHIBITIONISTS."

How a Saloon Man Regards C. C. Stevenson.

One of the stories spread by the Adams men against C. C. Stevenson, is that every saloon keeper in the State will vote against him.

Recently the writer had a talk with a Virginia saloon keeper on this point. He said:

"It is all nonsense for people to assert that saloon men try to down every man that does not patronize them. I keep a saloon, but some of my warmest friends are men who never enter my place of business. Mr. Stevenson never spent a cent here in his life, but I respect the man. He hasn't time to be hanging about saloons; he is too busy developing the country to do much of that. His money gets here all the same. He pays out $12,000 a month for wages, and seven hundred dollars of it float in here every month. I have no cause to complain of Mr. Stevenson. I know his views on saloons; he considers them a sort of necessary evil, and he thinks if whiskey must be sold it should be sold by responsible men, and the whiskey should be of the best."

"He believes in high license and closing down the low grogeries and cheap gin mills. That's my idea exactly. Four first class saloons in a town are better than twenty dead falls. Don't think for a moment that the saloon men are against C. C. Stevenson, too much of his money comes our way. He don't drink whiskey but his employees do and they have plenty of money on the first of every month."

Notice to Newspapers.

Capt. Lord, Secretary of the State Central Committee wishes it distinctly understood that all Republican papers expecting to receive money from the State Central Committee, must place the State Office address Virginia City on their mail list before any checks for campaign advertising will be sent to them, as the Secretary of the Committee desires to see if the State ticket and platform is properly published before paying for the same.

State Prison.

Warden Bell in his quarterly report reports the number of prisoners on hand Sept. 30th, 131. Six prisoners were received during the month and three discharged.

DIED.—In Carson, Oct. 2, 1896, Rosa Dias, aged 2 years and 9 months daughter of Antony and Mary Dias, of Carson Valley.

HENRY GEORGE.

Eulogistic Speeches at the National Convention at New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The meeting held at Chickering Hall to endorse the nomination of Henry George for Mayor, was one of the most enthusiastic ever held in this city. At every mention of George's name the audience rose and cheered for several minutes. Rev. Heber Newton is rector of one of the wealthiest Episcopal Churches in the city, and has several times been reprimanded by the Bishop of the diocese for his remarkable utterances in the pulpit. In his speech he said Henry George for six years past had been exposed to a fire as hot as any man ever passed through, and where is the first breath to tarnish his name? If anything could ever be found against him in San Francisco, should not the wires have long since brought it to those who have been bitterly opposing him? In two years the people will become well acquainted with him here. We who know him know him as a man in whose hands nothing can stick, as one who shall have other official business than the laying of pipes. Some people have been turning up their highly cultivated noses at him as a literary man, as if no special mental force were required to write a book that had been translated into all the languages of Europe.

Rev. Dr. McGlynn of St. Stephen's Roman Catholic Church, closed the meeting with a speech of nearly one hour. He reviewed George's career; called his nomination the second and better declaration of independence. Most of the speech was eulogistic to an amazing degree. Not only would the Mayor's chair be honored by George's occupancy of it, but any position in the power of the State or the nation to give would be honored by his occupancy of it. He was a greater man, Dr. McGlynn thought, than Jefferson in his great problems of political and social science. He said the monopolists tried to kill Henry George in San Francisco once, but the bullet was not yet cast that shall harm him, for he is a prophet and an apostle, and the Almighty takes care of those whom he has sent upon the earth, in either of these guises, until at last their great mission has been fulfilled.

Fighting a Long Sack.

The briefs on a motion of a new trial in the Perkins-Baldwin breach of promise case have just been submitted to Judge Cheney of the Los Angeles Superior Court. How many months since it is that the jury rendered that verdict granting to Miss Perkins $50,000 damages? It was away back in the Spring. This paper ventured the assertion then that there was a great deal of difference between a verdict awarding $50,000 and $50,000. The tortuous course of the subsequent litigation was indicated—the protracted effort to secure a new trial, the possible new trial itself; the appeal to the Supreme Court; the possible remanding of the case; the effect to secure a rehearing before the Supreme Court and so on. The probability is that Miss Perkins will be old and gray headed before she sees a final termination to her suit against Lucky Baldwin. It must not be forgotten that Lucky Baldwin is rich, and everybody knows what money will do in a lawsuit. The public should watch the slow progress of the Perkins-Baldwin issue towards a final conclusion. It will impart a very useful lesson.

Carson Opera House.

"A Mountain Pink" was given at the Carson Opera House, by the Bella Moore company last evening. From the rise of the curtain until its final fall Miss Moore was the favorite with all, and in the title role personified to perfection the illiterate and uneducated child of the "riscocratic" moonshiners of the mountains of North Carolina. Miss Moore is goodlooking, vivacious, in the many little incidents which add to the interest of the heroine as the plot approaches the climax. The company is a remarkably good one.
